THE CLASH OF WAR.

With the knowledge that the Russian and Japanese armies about Liaoyang are locked in a death struggle, the tension in St. Petersburg last night was strained to the utmost. It is believed that the

to the utmost. It is believed that the fight cannot stop short of the crushing defeat of one side or the other.

All reports so far are favorable to the Russians, though the suspension of all news for many hours has been exceedingly trying and has given rise to several rumors, somewhat tempering the earlier enthusiasm.

It is stated officially, however, that the report that the railway and the telegraph have been cut north of Liaoyang is untrue.

The highest military authorities con-

The highest military authorities consider that the most critical stage of the battle has not yet been reached, and they believe that the fight may continue for sometime before either side acknowledges the length of the line, about seven miles, the losses in the two days fighting can-not fall short of 10,000 on each side. Both sides are straining every nerve, realizing that the fortunes of war for a whole year are in the scale, and neither side is in the mood or the position to spare men in the effort to achieve a final victory.

The battle of Liaoyang will probably rank as one of the great sanguinary battles of history. It is estimated by the general staff that the Japanese armies engaged number 17 divisiors of 15,000 men each, or, allowing for inefficients, about 240,000 men. Each division has 36 guns, and there are two independent artillery brigades of 100 guns each, making a total of about 800 guns. The ing a total of about 800 guns. The estimates of Russian correspondents

The Japanese on Wednesday morning attacked three sides of the Russian position. One correspondent mentions a Japanese movement to the northeast of Liaoyang, showing that the Japanese were undoubtedly trying to work around

One of the surprising phases of the situation is the endurance of the men. They have been engaged desperately for two days after more or less severe fight-ing under unfavorable conditions every day since August 24. It would seem that human endurance could not persist

The second day's battle commenced at dawn. The Russians made repeated bayonet advances on the road directly south of Liaoyang, where the Japanese approached from Sanquaiship and Tao, shelling the positions in the Russian lines until 4 in the afternoon, when the engagement, which was general throughout the south and southeast, narrowed to the main line. The Japanese advance on the southeast was by way of the Feng Wang Cheng road. Im-mediately in front of Chiaofantum the Japanese stubbornly attempted to occu-py a round-topped hill, which was literally shaved by Russian shells, making repeated attempts the entire day where apparently it was impossible for anyvirginia, for Stiehl's Thirty-third Annual thing to live. The cannonading continued from this point to the vicinity of ement and Special September Offer. Practically the whole Russian force is on the firing line. Mr. Bryan Tenders His Services. Secretary Urey Woodson, of the democratic national committee, has received a letter from Mr. William J. Bryan in which the latter says he will be at the disposal of the democratic committee for campaign purposes during the month of October. Mr. Bryan indi-cates that he would prefer speaking in the West, mostly in Indiana. Chair-man Taggart says that the co.nmittee MAGAZINES, FASHION BOOKS AND has not yet taken up the subject of Mr. Br, ... itinerary, and it is not yet known whether he will speak in the eastern States, although there have been several requests from different localities that if Mr. Bryan enters the campaign he should make one or two speeches in Connecticut and New York. Satisfaction was expressed at national head quarters in New York regarding the offer of Mr. Bryan to aid in the campaign. A story was current yesterday that the populists, together with radical democrats and the remnant of the Henry George democracy, were not only going to put up Watson electors in New York, at that they would also put up a State
